

PUPPETS

at Fed Square
Monday 6 – Sunday 12 July 2009

Head in to Fed Square these winter school holidays, and you can enjoy a range of FREE and affordable puppet-themed activities for children of all ages.

Featuring puppet shows, roving performances, workshops, films and parades all week. And with heaps of affordable dining options and convenient onsite parking, Fed Square is the place for winter school holidays!

Snuff Puppets Roam

Giant seagulls, elephants and snails will take over Fed Square each day, roving through the Main Square and The Atrium and entertaining both 'little' and 'big' visitors with their crazy antics.

Films in the Atrium!

Kick back in a comfy bean bag and enjoy a plethora of free, puppet-themed films in The Atrium.

Hissy Fit, presented by Polyglot Puppet Theatre

Kids will love this free puppet show about a grumpy, child-hating snake charmer who loses his snake and throws a hissy fit! Recommended for audiences aged 6 – 12 years old.

ArtPlay sock-puppet making workshop

Get creative at Fed Square, with ArtPlay's sock-puppet making workshop in The Atrium. And for more puppet workshops, check out ArtPlay's PuppetLab – www.artplay.com.au

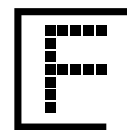

ARTPLAY

ArtPlay Processional Puppets

Let the kids display their puppetry prowess, marching their pre-made ArtPlay puppets around Birrarung Marr and Fed Square!

Puppet Animation

In this fun workshop, kids will make their own clay characters before bringing them to life using stop motion animation and modern digital techniques. Workshops are free and kids can take their clay friends home.
